

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
0900	Welcome	Mihingarangi Forbes, MC
0905	Chair address	Mary-Jane Daly, Chair of the Board, NZGBC
0915	Opening remarks	Phil Twyford, Labour's spokesperson for housing, building and construction
0945	Case study ZEB Pilot House: net positive energy house in Larvik, Norway	Kristian Edwards, Project Manager, Snohetta Architects, Norway
1015	Morning Tea
1100	International keynote address Greenest city on Earth: glimpses from Vancouver	Councillor Andrea Reimer, City of Vancouver
1145	Precinct infrastructure: the key to effective urban transformation	Richard Palmer, Associate Director – Sustainability, WSP Sydney
1230	Market transformation: are we at the tipping point?	Alex Cutler, CEO, NZGBC
1300	Lunch
1400	Case study Prefabrication: an essential strategy for certainty in sustainable housing	Daiman Otto, CEO, Tall Wood, and PrefabNZ chair
	Case study Christchurch's East Frame: setting realistic sustainability benchmarks	Steve Evans, Chief Executive – Residential and Land Development, Fletcher Building
	Case study The Nightingale Model: Upsetting the status quo of the speculative multi-residential housing development	James Legge, director, Six Degrees Architects, Melbourne
1510	Afternoon Tea
1535	Panel discussion Housing health and affordability in New Zealand	Robert Linterman, General Manager Residential, EECA Professor Robyn Phipps, Massey University, and He Kainga Oranga (Housing and Health Research Programme) Kate Healy, Chief Operating Officer, Ngāti Whātua Ōrākei Whai Rawa Geoff Simmons, Economist, The Morgan Foundation
1615	Closing keynote address A new code for sustainable neighbourhoods: glimpses from North America	Adam Beck, Director, Centre for Urban Innovation, Brisbane
1700	Closing remarks and thanks	Alex Cutler, CEO, NZGBC
1710	Drinks and Canapés
1900	Event ends	